ARTISAN CEILING TILES

Wood Illusions

Achieve the warm and inviting atmosphere of wood with a unique alternative that is Class A fire rated. Above View's GRG (Glass Reinforced Gypsum) material can appear like actual wood or wood laminate with faux finishing and/or with natural woodgrain surface textured ceiling tiles.

Grooved Quarter Pyramid Ceiling Tiles at the Palms Casino radiate rich tones in a Dark Oak faux finish. Four 2' x 2' tiles come together to form a larger 4' x 4' pyramid for a dramatic effect. The finished product has the look of millwork at significantly less cost.

Wood Look, Different Material

The Boardwalk Series has an oak woodgrain texture molded on the surface and can be custom finished to match other elements throughout your design. Comprised of four tiles, the series has endless pattern possibilities depending on orientation in the grid.

Signature Walls

Caesars Horseshoe in Elizabeth, IN features Greek Key A Ceiling Tile and Greek Key B Ceiling Tile. The A and B patterns mirror each other and offer many design possibilities, depending on their orientation. A unique application that seamlessly continues the ceiling pattern down a feature wall.

In Southern CA, Art Deco Coffin Wall Tiles, epitomizes sophisticated living and bring texture to the space. Installed from floor to ceiling throughout this contemporary interior, the panels bring unexpected depth to each bright and airy room.
